THE STORY OF THE BULLETINS.

They Tell How the Convention Did Its Fourth Day's Work.

THE SPECIAL PORTAL VIEW TO THE EVENING WORLD.
CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, JUNE 22-10.35 A. M. Chicago Time.—Convention Hall is slowly receiving the multitude it is soon to cover. It is warm, but not as warm as yesterday morning. There is a feeling that a somnolence will be made to-day.

10.45 A. M.—Chairman Hiseok has arrived.

10.47 A. M.—Col. Fred Grant is cheered as he enters the hall.

11.01 A. M.—Delegates filing in rapidly. There will be a jam in the hall.

11.07 A. M.—Chairman calls convention to order.

11.14 A. M.—Order has not yet been secured.

11.17 A. M.—The biggest crowd of the convention is present to-day and considerable confusion may be expected.

11.17 A. M.—Cries of "Foraker" as Ohio's Governor comes in.

11.27 A. M.—Hiseok, of New York, has been called to the chair. Dr. Worcester, of Chicago, is making the prayer.

11.29 A. M.—Roll-call of States has begun.

11.33 A. M.—The Secretary is reading the rules governing the balloting.

11.37 A. M.—Tremendous cheering in the galleries renewed three times.

11.47 A. M.—Chairman Hiseok calls for order.

11.53 A. M.—A delegate from Louisiana asks for a poll, which was taken.

11.55 A. M.—Great confusion and excitement during the balloting.

11.54 A. M.—A Minnesota delegate asks for the polling of the vote of his delegation.

12.01 P. M.—Pennsylvania's vote is being polled. The Sherman people are disappointed in her vote.

12.15 P. M.—Confusion delays the proceedings.

At Taylor, of Tennessee, calls for a poll of his State's vote.

12.15 P. M.—Taylor, of Tennessee, announces he is in haste to vote for Blaine. He arises to a question of privilege and is rebuked by the Chair.

THE CONVENTION'S FOURTH DAY.

A Graphic Account of the Proceedings at Chicago.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

CHICAGO, June 22.

HE crowds seeking admission to the convention to-day were greater than at any previous session.

When the Chairman rapped for order at 11.05 o'clock nearly every delegate was in his place, and there were very few vacant seats anywhere in the big hall.

There was an eager, expectant air on the faces of the spectators, which was also noticeable among the delegates. Every one felt that the critical moment of the convention had arrived when the strength of the various booms would be tested. The first ballot was awaited with the utmost anxiety.

The Sherman men, who are certain to have a fair lead on the start, were nervous and restless. It was plainly to be seen that no candidate, even in the minds of his most enthusiastic friends, had a sure thing.

The Harrison men flitted hither and thither about the hall strengthening their lines at every possible point for the decisive test.

All kinds of rumors were afloat as to possible and probable combinations. So great was the strain that the opening prayer fell upon unresponsive ears. Some of the delegates looked as though they would like to make a motion to dispense with the prayer altogether.

ONE OF THE GAVELS.

As might be expected, there are plenty of rumors flying around, and all sorts of boasts and prophecies are heard two hours before the first ballot. The Ohio men are claiming that Sherman will be nominated, and assert that he will get the Gresham votes after two or three ballots.

There appears to be a good foundation for the rumors that the Sherman people are preparing to fight any attempt to stampee the convention for Blaine.

FOR INDEPENDENCE OF THE SITUATION.

Col. Bob Ingersoll said to THE EVENING WORLD correspondent a few moments ago:

"It seems to me as if the contest will narrow itself down to this: The Sherman people will use all their power and votes to prevent a Blaine cyclone; the friends of Mr. Blaine will oppose the nomination of John Sherman. What the result will be is hard to guess. I would like an eagle political question to answer this hot weather. This is a very queer convention."

JOHN O'BRIEN HOLDS OUT AGAINST DEPEW.

The New York delegates have met and all efforts to get John J. O'Brien to vote for Depew have failed. New York will, therefore, give Depew 71 votes. O'Brien will vote for Blaine, as he has all along proclaimed he would.

The New York delegates met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Depew was absent and was represented by Senator John S. Raines, his alternate. Ex-Senator Miller presided. Ex-Senator Platt and his followers were all present.

SENATOR FARRIST'S NEW HONOR.

Senator Fassett was unanimously elected a member of the National Committee.

Delegate Willis, of Brooklyn, wanted the resolution read which pledged the delegates to support Depew. Ex-Senator Miller replied that no resolution to that effect had been written out. The delegates who were present at Monday's meeting had voted on a roll call to vote for Mr. Depew; that should be considered as binding.

Mr. Depew was absent and was represented by Senator John S. Raines, his alternate. Ex-Senator Miller presided. Ex-Senator Platt and his followers were all present.

THE HOPE OF THE SHERRMANS.

Sherman loomed up last night because of the great demonstration which Foraker's second of Gen. Hastings's nomination of the Ohio Senator's name provoked, but there was a feeling in the city that Sherman would win to-day, and if he does not win to-day he cannot win at all.

Yesterday's demonstration is generally believed to be more of a Foraker boom than a Sherman boom, but no one can separate the shouts for the Senator from the enthusiasm for Foraker.

Senator Gray, of Pennsylvania, who was at work for Sherman until the small hours of the morning, came into the Convention Hall with a weary and anxious air.

The Pennsylvania delegation is hard to know what the third, or the fourth or fifth ballots will show.

The men who pull the wires have been up nearly all night and the air of the Convention Hall, it begins to fill, is full of rumors, theories and blind guesses.

There were many conferences last night, but apparently without result.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

CHICAGO, June 22.—Within a few hours from the time this dispatch is filed the result of the first ballot for President in the Republican National Convention will be known throughout the Union. The convention is to assemble at 11 A. M., Chicago time, but it is doubtful if the roll call of States will begin before 11.30. The thirty minutes' grace will give 10,000 people a chance to sharpen pencils and prepare their tally sheets.

Mr. Depew and his friends are still suspicious of Platt, and if the Depew forces withdraw Depew they are likely to go to Sherman. The Blaine or bustlers may then put the Plumed Knight before the convention.

BOOMERS CAME TO BLOWS.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

CHICAGO, June 22.—When a Blaine procession late last night marched into the rotunda of the Grand Pacific Hotel with a band of music and hoisted their transparencies a Gresham procession had just returned to the hotel only a few minutes before.

The Gresham men brought out a couple of transparencies and hoisted them to counteract the cheering for the man from Maine.

The gin now became frightful. The big rotunda was a solid mass of humanity. Men stood on lounges, chairs and wherever they could obtain a foothold.

Cheers for Blaine and counter-cheers for Gresham rent the air. Clark street was impassable. The delegates were hoisted on canes and umbrellas and "Blaine! Blaine! James G. Blaine!" came from a thousand throats.

Suddenly the man carrying the Blaine transparency was hoisted on the shoulders of a group of enthusiasts. The crowd went wild.

Then the Gresham men did the same thing.

But above all arose the cry of "Blaine! Blaine! James G. Blaine!" Whenever cheers were proposed for Harrison, Sherman or Gresham, some one would propose three cheers for Blaine, and how the Blaine or Bustlers would yell!

While all this shouting was going on in the corridors, the bosses of the State delegations and their deputy bosses were marshaling their forces. The managers of the various candidates were rushing from headquarters to headquarters. Gov. Foraker, ex-Gov. Foster and Congressmen McKinley and Butlerworth, the Ohio "big four," were closeted together and were keeping messengers busy.

Ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt, Louis F. Fawn, Senator Hiseok and ex-Senator Warner Miller were in Mr. Platt's room.

WHY DID MR. PLATT WANT TO SEE DEPEW?

At 1 o'clock A. M. Mr. Platt came out of the caucus. As he stood in the corridor meeting his brow, he said to Senator Fawn: "We want to see Depew and we cannot find him."

Men pulled off their coats, climbed on top of each other and waved the names of Blaine and Sherman. The cheering was such that a Gresham man climbed a pillar to the projection above the capital and pushed his banner against the ceiling. Then the crowd went wild.

He had hardly descended when Blaine men set upon him, and in a second every vestige of clothing was torn from his back.

In the melee the partisans pounded one another in the face and several of the men were knocked down.

Police men in vain tried to force their way through the dense crowd, but before they reached the combatants the struggle was over. Such a scene was never known in Chicago before.

An English View of the C. O. P. Platform.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)

LONDON, June 22.—Fall Mail Gazette, in reviewing the Republican platform, asserts that the Republican leaders have lost their astuteness and seem to depend for their success upon popular ignorance of economic questions if not actual stupidity.

Their only hope of success, the paper says, is in the nomination of a Tariff Reform man, and the mark of free trade will divide the country like slavery. Cleveland, the Gazette believes, will win easily.

MRS. PARSONS ARRESTED.

She Was Distributing Anarchistic Pamphlets Among the Republican Delegates.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

CHICAGO, June 22.—Mrs. PARSONS, the widow of the Anarchist, was arrested this morning in front of the Grand Pacific Hotel. She was distributing pamphlets advertising her late husband's book among the delegates when a policeman seized her. Here is an extract from the circular:

"Have I one more wish?" said Parsons with that familiar flash in his eyes when, a few days before that black Friday, I called to him from far away. "Oh, yes, I have more than one. Never tire in advocating our high principles in the warfare between cowardice and tyranny. Never cease until the American people know why we are murdered and the class fanaticism characterizing our condemnation is understood."

UNION MEN VICTORIOUS.

Striking Painters and Varnishers Go Back with All They Asked.

The union painters and varnishers employed on the twelve new buildings being erected in West Fifty-eighth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, by Westberg, Jefferson & Co., mounding the numbers from 540 to 548, struck yesterday for the standard wages and against non-union men employed on the same work.

To-day Delegate McLaughlin, of Progressive Painters' Union No. 4, obtained from the contractors agreement that they would employ union men only, at $5.50 a day of nine hours, and this morning the men who struck returned to work.

FOREMAN MARRONE SURRENDERS.

And Is Held to Answer, with Contractor Hobbs, for the Death of the Laborers.

Michael Marrone, foreman of the work of cutting the trench through East Thirty-second street, in which the three men were buried on Wednesday, surrendered himself late last night to Coroner Edman.

He said he had not put in an appearance after, because he had been searching for a townsman. He would not admit responsibility to $5,000 to appear at the inquest, and he was released.

DETERMINED TO DIE.

Charles Howard Shoots Himself Three Times in Central Park.

Charles Howard, a dependant man of fifty-five years, of 16 Beach street, attempted suicide in Central Park this morning by shooting himself twice in the head and once in the left breast.

In his pocket was a sealed letter addressed "To the Coroner, of whatever may take care of me." At the Ninety-ninth Street Hospital his wounds were pronounced fatal. He had been out of work some time.

Mr. Heffernan's Precocious Note.

The clothes of M. J. Heffernan, a Brooklyn journalist, were found at the foot of Forty-ninth street, South Brooklyn, with a note saying the owner was going to hang and might be seized with cramps and drowned.

Mr. Heffernan is believed to have met the fate spoken in the note. He had been out of work some time and had not returned to his home.

Wined for Helping Early Closing.

Albert Roemer, Third Avenue and One Hundred and Seventh street, was fined $5 at the Harlem Police Court this morning for distributing early closing circulars.

Roemer belongs to an early closing association and distributed circulars near Henry Schick's store, at 1908 Third Avenue. Schick's keeps his store open in the evening and considered the circulars offensive.

A Fight with a Fatality.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

CHICAGO, June 22.—Several men were severely and one fatally injured near Southport in a fight between union and non-union brickmakers.
